3 YEAR SENTENCE FOR RABY HILL

J. B. WHITE

On national holidays like Washington's birthday, we remember the great forefather who founded our nation. It sometimes seems as if they had almost superhuman intelligence. It is remarkable, for instance, that the men who framed the constitution of the United States showed a higher degree of intelligence than any Congress that has assembled since that time, and that the average run of the people of those days were better citizens and more intelligent than the average run of folks today.

The truth seems to be that our people were never so intelligent as they are today, but that their minds have been so concentrated on their personal aims, that it is hard to get them to consider the needs of their community and government. Also when people's minds are so concentrated, they are apt to become selfish. When they become selfish, dishonesty and crime are encouraged.

It is a fine thing for people to be ambitious. But when their aims are concentrated on the idea of making money, they often forget about the duty of looking after their government. Also they demand such costly things to satisfy them, that they keep grasping for more and more money, and thus are apt to trample on the rights of other people.

The people of those old days, when the government was founded, were not naturally more honest. But they had learned to live in a simple way, to which many of our people can not adjust themselves. Too many people insist, at the cost of honor and ideals.

So it seems that the English language is suffering from the lack of words properly descriptive of smells. To supply that lack, the members of the Smell Society are preparing a list of descriptive words which, they say, may run in number to perhaps 500.

"There are hundreds of descriptive words in English to identify color through all its most subtle shades. Many, such as beige, are of recent origin." But, they say, "we do not possess a single word which specifies a kind of smell, like those of roast turkey, mimosa, wool or tar, for example."

It should be noted that the Smell Society is an English organization composed of wine experts, tasters, gourmet, medical men and research chemists. Britishers are rather inclined to that sort of thing. That is, if somebody conceives that there is something which ought to be done he forms a society for the doing and finds no lack of support.

There always seems to be plenty of persons who are ready to turn their attention to supplying needs, the lack of which have not been particularly apparent to others who are concerned with what they consider the truly vital things of life.

People say they regret the passing of time, particularly the older folks. But no one seems to regret the passing of winter. So even the old folks, who have not many years to go, are glad to see old January and February pulled off the calendar sheets, and

CLUB GIRLS START ORCHARD CAMPAIGN

The Girls 4-H Clubs of Milam County are having a county-wide "Start an Orchard" rally in Cameron, Saturday, February 20th, at 2:30 o'clock. The rally is being sponsored by the Milam County Chamber of Commerce and will be held in the Yoe High School Auditorium.

The program planned will include demonstrations on pruning and setting out young fruit trees and on pruning older trees; there will also be given information on the value of Milam County farmers growing their fruit at home.

The club girls will invite all 4-H club boys and all Future Farmers of America to come.

Yoemen Enter District Meet

Belton Game Here Tuesday Feb 23rd

Yoemen were setting a fast clip in the District basketball race now coming to a climax with what may be the deciding game of the conference to be played here on Tuesday night February 23, against Belton.

Belton and Rosebud are tied for first place and Cameron is a close second. Belton defeated Cameron in Belton 24 to 21 and Coach Ruggles thinks the team can avenge that defeat and possibly throw the conference into a three way tie and further increase interest in this close contest.

The coming game with Belton overshadows locally the interest in the district meet at College Station to take place this week-end, Feb. 19 and 20. Nine county champion teams will be in the college gymnasium for the meet. The strongest teams may be Bryan, Normangee and Navosota. Cameron should make a good showing according to Coach Ruggles who has just piloted his team to the county championship, having defeated Ad Hall here 52 to 18 Thursday night. Griswold, Goppel and Gerick made 14, 12 and 10 points respectively. The score at the half was 27 to 4.

Play in district meet starts at 1 p. m. Friday. Cameron has defeated Hearne and Caldwell and these teams have defeated some of the favorites to contest in the district meet. The Yoemen will leave Friday morning. They are:

BAND BENEFIT SHOW HERE FRIDAY NIGHT

Amateur hour and stunt night for the benefit of the band uniform fund will be held on Friday night at 7:30 in the high school gymnasium.

The program is sponsored by the Band Parents Association and the proceeds will go to buy uniforms for band members who are graduating from the Junior Band. The plan is to furnish these junior band members with uniforms before the band contest to be held in Waco in April.

The Lions Club and American Legion are co-operating with Band Parents Association.

The program will be strictly amateur with music, comedy and some serious numbers. Adults will pay 25c and students 10c for this show.

TO THE AGED PEOPLE

Tender of support by The Herald to their claims for old age assistance has brought a number of appeals from aged people of Milam County.

Our objective in this matter is to assist those who have been long neglected. Through information dealing with the administration of pensions for the aged, we hope to acquaint the people with the magnitude of our short comings as a state to justly expend the funds authorized in the Old Age Amendment to the constitution.

In the main, let it be said that the fault lies with the legislature of Texas. Twice it has had the opportunity to provide funds for the aged and has not done so. In other respects there has been gross incompetency in the administration of the law at Austin. Local investigators have nothing to do with the failure of aged people to get assistance. It should be said that these men have done a fine job.

This parade of the needy is a soul sickening caravan of worthy Texans marching toward the setting sun, behind them a philanthropic state, without sympathy or courage to shed a few rays of hope into their lives, which at best, are but a few years.

Among the letters are many from those whose needs are great. There are those who have known nothing but lives of hardship, working with their hands to create wealth for others to enjoy; those who have known better and brighter days and now come near the end of the lane to experience in the remaining few years a life restricted to the harrowing actualities of despair. These are the most pathetic.

The Herald will not publish names because to do so would in many cases wound still deeper those who have found the statesmen a halting group and a state all but devoid of understanding. These letters are to us a responsibility beyond our desire to see justice done.

The Herald hopes by this measure of interest to bring to the attention of those in authority the actual conditions. It hopes to see that not one is neglected. The philosophy of equal and uniform justice must prevail. There must be no further denial of responsibility. Rather are we committed to seek immediate remedy. It is the duty of every citizen to aid.

Send in your names, giving all details. We are without remedy save to create a desire for justice. In this endeavor we ask your co-operation.

Howard Hughes Sets New Air Record

Howard Hughes, in the cockpit of his monoplane, "Winged Bullet," at the Newark airport after he had set a new transcontinental speed mark. Burning the wind at an estimated average speed of 332 miles an hour, the flying movie producer drove across the continent in seven hours and thirty-one minutes.

JOE G. MATULA IS POSTAL CLERK HEAD

Joe G. Matula was elected president of the 11th Congressional District, United States Association of Post Office Clerks, at the meeting held here on Friday night, February 12.

Buford Finley of Marlin, was elected Vice President.

The Cameron postal clerks were hosts to the district meeting and Mr. Matula was in charge of the banquet arrangements.

W. W. Skinner of Waco, organizer of District 11, presided. J. R. Hays, postmaster, gave the welcome address and introduced O. C. Acree, the speaker of the evening.

Miss Jane Allen, dancer, entertained the guests, with Miss Elizabeth Sprott at the piano. Miss Johnnie Mae Hays, daughter of the Cameron Postmaster, gave a reading.

W. D. Robinson of Temple, presided at the business meeting following the banquet.

The Texas convention of postoffice clerks will be held in Galveston this year and the national convention will be held in Ft. Worth. According to Mr. Matula this is the first time the national convention has been held in Texas.

Tamburitzer

One of the number of celebrated artists to appear in the Tamburitz band for the Chamber of Commerce banquet on March 9th.

Anton Antonich, berde player with the American Tamburitz String Orchestra, holds the distinction of being the first ranking berde artist in America.

The berde or bass tamburitz plays the parts assigned to the double bass of all string ensembles. There is this difference, however, in the use of the berde in a tamburitz orchestra. The double bass is used only to accompany the lead instruments. This is likewise true of the berde tamburitz, but in addition the solo or lead part of the orchestral arrangement is transferred frequently to the berde.

Investigators Here Do Good Job In Old Age Pension Program

Applicants for old age assistance benefits in Milam county have had the aid of sympathetic as well as efficient investigators, and although through some misinformation they have been subjected to criticism for delay in payments, they are in no way responsible.

R. L. Storey, veteran investigator, is now completing re-investigation of many cases sent back under the revised plan. With him now is E. L. Upshaw of Belton who is doing work in the southern section of the county.

Mr. Storey said that he planned to have all case records in Austin by the first of March. Mr. Storey has nothing to do with the delay in payment or failure of applicants to get on the roll.

An all day singing will be held at the Salty Methodist church in Salty Sunday. The singing will be under the direction of Clarence Jackson. Dinner will be served on the grounds.

MURDER CHARGE IN SLAYING OF G-MAN

Austin, Feb. 15—Federal officers met here today for an investigation of the fatal shooting last night of W. W. Thomasson, internal revenue agent, in a raid on an illicit still.

Thomasson and Pete Martinez died in a blaze of gunfire near the still on the Colorado river about five miles west of Austin.

Ike Young, a Travis county man, was charged with murder and a dozen other persons, caught in a police dragnet spread through the river valley, were held for questioning.

Young was charged by Sheriff Lee Allen after officers, acting on information given by a 13-year-old youth, dug from the earth near Young's home a .38 calibre pistol.

The bodies of Thomasson and Martinez were found near each other in a ravine. On Martinez was an empty pistol scabbard. Because of darkness officers were unable to determine how many persons participated in the shooting.

Barrett Is Injured In Car Wreck; May Not Play Tuesday

Charlie Barrett, star player on the Yoemen Basketball team was seriously injured in an automobile wreck Saturday and will not be able to play in the game against Belton next Tuesday night in the gymnasium in Cameron.

Coach Ruggles was afraid he would be out the remainder of the season. His loss to the team will be severe. Blankenship and Baldwin will be called upon to make up for the loss and the coach believes that while the team may be weakened some by the loss of Barrett these men will enable him to put a formidable team on the floor against Belton.

Thanks Pastor for Christmas Dinner To Waco Home

Cameron friends made possible a Christmas turkey dinner at the Methodist Home in Waco.

This week Rev. J. Coy Williams, received a letter from Hubert Johnson, superintendent, thanking Cameron friends for the meal.

Rev. Williams sponsored the Christmas turkey dinner by contributions from citizens outside his church. Mr. Johnson says that many of the children in the home had never eaten turkey prior to Christmas day. It had been several years since the home had a turkey dinner.

AUSTIN JURY GIVES LENIENT VERDICT

A jury in Travis county district court Tuesday returned a verdict of guilty against Raby Hill and fixed his punishment at 3 years in Texas prison.

Hill was found guilty of murder in connection with the killing of George Richards, night policeman in Cameron in fall of 1935. He was tried in December of 1935 and a jury in district court at Cameron found him guilty and fixed his punishment at 99 years in prison. Miscunduct on the part of the jury furnished the basis for reversal of the case and on change of venue the court here, on its own motion, sent the case to Travis county.

On the first attempt to try the case in late 1936 postponement was granted and the case finally went to trial on February 8 of this year with the result of conviction and a 3 year sentence.

Hill was formerly engaged in the cafe business in Cameron but sold his business following the shooting. In late months he purchased a cafe business in Temple and was residing there at the time of the trial which ended on Tuesday.

Most Valuable Among Citizens

E. D. PARNELL

Computed in terms of potential development and education, E. D. Parnell, teacher of vocational agriculture in the public schools, becomes Cameron's most valuable citizen.

Based upon the importance of agriculture as the basic industry, his work stands out as one of the major advances in the history of the county. Brilliant is his record of achievement during the years he has been a member of the Yoe High School faculty.

Not many men have shown such talent. The story of his 14 years as a teacher in three public schools in Texas is one of best biographies in getting the job done, to be found anywhere among the men who are laying the foundations for a greater and more abundant farm life in the nation.

In the 14 years he has engaged in this work, he has taught in only 3 schools: Littlefield, Runge and Cameron. As a young man, he graduated from Texas A & M College in June of 1923. He has held a Master of Science Degree from A & M since August 1934. He did graduate work in the Colorado Agricultural College and taught in the Texas A & M summer school in 1928.

Trainer of Teams

Three years he trained the winning poultry judging teams in Texas. They were the teams of the contest of 1929, 1932 and in 1936, the latter being the famous Yoemen team. The 1929 team won the reserve championship of the United States in a national contest held in St. Louis. The 1936 team placed 10th with Roy Mabry, Cameron high school senior, placing 6th high in the contest. The

EDITORIAL

What is it that sends enchantment to high-school days? It is the hours put in at the desk over a book? Ask any high-school alumnus what lent the glamour to his high school career. Ask him if it was the unending hours with eyes focused on an unending book that was to be reported on.

His reply would be "Indeed not!" No, friendship and fellowship are the high spots of high school days. They are the unforgotten treasures.

Does the high school student anticipate the usual weekly algebra quiz he is to have? No, he anticipates the Dramatic Club party to which he has been invited. Does the student look forward with pleasure to the Fire Prevention theme that must be handed in by Friday at 3:30? No, she is looking forward to the thrilling game between Belton and Yoe High. Does the student long to outline the pamphlets on Whooping Cough, Measles, Scarlet Fever and Bad Teeth? No, he is looking for the hours of the class party to be given at the gymnasium on Friday evening.

All of these high school pleasures make high school what it ought to be and foster the right relationship among the students themselves and between the students and teachers. "Friendship is the sweetest tie of all the world's perfuming," and where are friendship natured more than in social activities of a high school?

COUNTY MEET PRACTICE

Plans for participation in County Meet activities, when the 1937 meet is held in Cameron in March, are taking definite shape, according to statements from high school teachers in charge of the various activities.

Miss Young has announced girls who are trying out for baseball as follows: Juanita Fogel, Sidney Hause, Velma Huges, Velma Fay Kirk, Doris Morgan, Doris Warren, Lucile Stedman, Wanda Terry, Rachel Whisenant, Ruth Lewis, Beatrice Walschak, Maxine Akers, Agnes Biskup, Clara Reimer, Birdie Shegiut, Elsie Hrosek and Frances Lesovsky. tions, Misses Dorothy Kidd and Martha Witherspoon; commercial, Miss Sibyle York and Mrs. Elizabeth Ross; extemporaneous speaking, Mrs. G. W. Hefley; essay-writing, Miss Margaret Blaubaum; spelling, Harvey Yoe; debate, C. M. Franklin.

Miss Love states that the tournament play has been ordered and that practice will begin as soon as it arrives.

Misses Kidd and Witherspoon are coaching Cuthrel Heath, Victor Walzel and Milton Leech in senior boys' declamations, Patricia Batte and Mary Frances White in senior girls' declamations; Diane Luckett and Norma Jean McElwath, junior high school girls.

Josephine Eickenhorst and Dorothy Gohmert, last year's spellers, are entered again this year in spelling, coached by Harvey Yoe.

HOMEMAKERS MEET IN NEW CLUB ROOM

The new F. H. T. Club room was christened Thursday afternoon when the Future Homemakers held their meeting at two o'clock. The club room was originally the old typing room. Several club members arranged tables and chairs which were presented to the club by Mr. Perrin. Flower pots and plants adorned the room, and curtains were hung at the windows to create a homelike appearance. The room is very attractive, and all the girls are very proud of it.

Kathleen Perrin, program chairman, had a very entertaining program planned. Patricia Batte called the meeting to order; business matters were conducted, and then the program was turned over to Kathleen.

"Hobbies" was the theme of the program. Harriett Atkinson spoke on "Value of Hobbies to Girls"; Lelia Marie Batte gave a talk on "Hobbies of Famous People." Viola Thomas, Kathleen Perrin, Martha Frances Brogdon and Lucille Stedman gave a cornet quartet.

A social hour was enjoyed after the program with the Social Leader,

Rita Shrieber, serving cookies as refreshment.

Approximately five new members joined. The girls have ordered their club pins. Plans were made for a Future Farmer and Future Homemakers party to be held in the Gym on Tuesday evening.

More About Split of District 26-B

By H. B.

In Temple Telegram

MORE AND MORE conscious of that empty feeling in the pocketbook, coaches of District 26-B (26-B last season) are beginning to wonder just why they voted to split the district.

They see that it's going to be almost impossible for any team in the district, except possibly the winner of each division, to do as well as break even next fall.

Split down the middle, the district will next year see several games that had worked up to the "traditional rival" class abandoned because the contestants will be in different divisions.

Without that angle, the fans will be able to stay away in droves, to the great thinning of each team's gate receipts.

For instance, Cameron and Belton, natural rivals, have been playing hard, close games for years, and last year Cameron won the district in a scoreless tie game with Belton. A game between those two next fall would be a natural. The stands would be packed. But Cameron and Belton are in different divisions now, can only meet if each wins its bracket.

A Cameron-Taylor game would also pack the stands, and Belton-Rosebud, Granger-Cameron and Rosebud-Granger would draw large crowds. But the split catches all of them.

I was talking to Bob Safley of Belton about it. Belton is one of the best football towns in this part of the state, but Safley can't see anything but financial failure next fall. If strong football towns like Belton will lose money, what will happen in smaller towns?

Cameron, another very strong football town, will be in the same position. With only Rosebud, Rockdale and Thorndale in their half of the district, the regional champion Yoe-men will have to come up with a miraculous schedule to do any good at the gate.

I frankly cannot understand why the district was divided. True, it would be more or less awkward with nine teams, and schedules would be hard, with each team trying to play eight district opponents. Still, every team will play more than that anyway, so why not play them with teams that are natural rivals, in competition that really counts? That angle will bring in the customers where nothing else will.

Maybe it's too late for the coaches to change their minds. Maybe a majority is determined to make the split stick. If it isn't too late, the division should be done away with, but that isn't likely.

The best solution seems to be for the teams between which these traditional rivalries are active to go ahead and match games with each other anyway, regardless of whether they may meet in the district play-off or not. Games of that sort won't draw as well as they would with district standing depending on them, but they will draw better than games matched with outside opponents.

Looking ahead, the odds are heavy that if the split district scheme is used next year, it will be abandoned after that.

If this is butting into the coaches' business, I'm sorry, but I do not want to see football in this section hurt, and I'm afraid that is exactly what the split district will do. Football is our biggest, most interesting and closely following sport. We want more of it instead of less, but it can't live long if it starts losing money.—Temple Daily Telegram.

How Do I Apply for Benefits?

Question 14—"Just how will I go about filing my application for benefits?"

Answer—First your employer will post a notice of the Commission which will tell you how to file your application.

When you have filed your application or claim according to these instructions, it will be referred to an agent of the Commission. He will examine your claim immediately and decide whether you are entitled to benefits. If he finds that you are entitled to benefits, then he will set the time for the benefits to begin and the amount you will receive.

If you are not satisfied with his decision—then you may appeal either to an "appeal tribunal" which will be set up in your territory or to the Commission. The appeal tribunals will be composed of three men—one a labor man, one representing the employer, and one an agent of the Commission.

The decisions of this tribunal may be reviewed by the Commission, and the decision of the Commission may be appealed to the courts.

It is interesting to note that you may file your court appeal in the courts of your own county. Usually all suits against state agencies must be filed in Austin.

Thus, you see, a man is given every chance to get a square deal.

The Commission agent who first examines and decides on your claim will be called a deputy. The agent who sits on the appeals tribunal will be called an examiner.

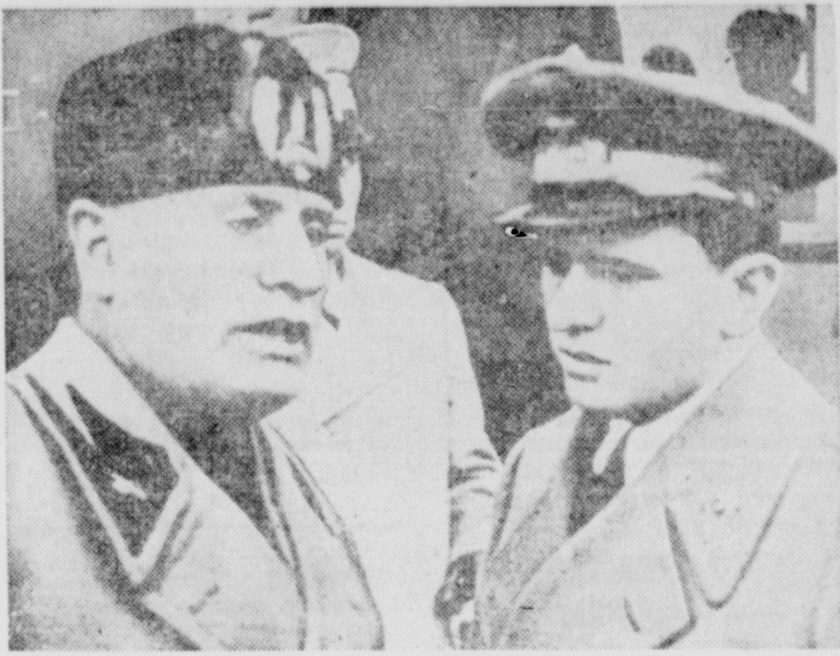

What is a Public Employment Agency? Question 15—"In a previous article you said that I must sign up for work at an employment agency. Will any agency do?"

Answer—No. You must sign up at a public employment office named by Commission. Free employment officials and branches will be maintained for this purpose.

While there will be no need for these offices under the Act until we start paying benefits in 1938, the Texas State Employment Service, already established, will form the basis for the organization.

This Service, which has been operating for many months in several Texas cities, will be expanded to the extent necessary. The Commission also has the power to co-operate with county and city officials in maintaining any agencies it thinks necessary.

In any event, an agency will be available for all workers, and as we have already said, your employer will post in a conspicuous place the regulations and the procedure you must follow to apply for benefits.

What Is An Employer?

Question 16—"What is an employer?"

Answer—Briefly, an employer is any person or firm, who, during 1935 or after, has employed as many as eight persons for at least one day a week for any 20 weeks during the calendar year.

The "twenty weeks" provision is very strictly defined. Say that your normal payroll is seven persons, but occasionally you have to hire another worker for a half day at a time. If that worker is employed for any part of a day in 20 different weeks throughout the year, you become an employer and you must pay the tax on your entire payroll.

If you, with seven workers, acquire another business which had eight workers, and thereafter disband the newly-acquired business, leaving you with your payroll of seven, you still are an employer.

If you, as an individual, own or control several small stores, each having one or two workers, and the total number of workers in all these stores is more than eight, then you employer.

If your total payroll has less than eight workers, then you may voluntarily come under the Act, but you are an employer.

If you are an employer engaged in one of the exempted occupations such as farming, you may voluntarily come under the Act.

How Does the Law Affect Contractors and Sub-Contractors?

Question 17—"I am in the contracting business. On some jobs I sub-let work. Is my payroll measured by the number of men working directly for me on the job, or does it also include the workers on the sub-contracts?"

Answer—If the sub-contractor himself employs as many as eight workers and therefore is under the law himself, then he is responsible for the contributions on his payroll.

But if the sub-contractor does not employ as many as eight workers, then you as a contractor are liable for the contribution on his payroll. However, any contribution that you pay on the sub-contractor's workers may be recovered by you from the sub-contractor.

It is understood of course that the sub-contractor must be otherwise eligible to pay contributions under the Act.

How Can an Employer Volunteer to Come Under the Law?

Question 18—"In my business, I employ only seven men. Therefore, I am not subject to the Unemployment Compensation Act. However, I want my employees to have the benefits of the Act. How do I go about voluntarily becoming a contributor?"

Answer—You must first file an application with the Commission. This voluntary submission to the law is open not only to firms employing less than eight workers, but also to those who employ exempted laborers such as agricultural workers.

When you become an employer within the meaning of the Act, you must remain subject to its provisions for at least two years. To sever your connection you must file another application with the Commission at least 30 days before January 1 of the calendar year during which you desire to sever your connection with the Act.

You understand, of course, that your employees would benefit only during the period in which you elected to be an employer under the law. In other words, in getting their benefit payments, your workers could not count for credit any week of employment prior to the time you came under the law.

If you have any questions concerning the operation of this law as it affects employers or workers, you can have your questions answered by writing to R. B. Anderson, chairman, Texas Unemployment Compensation Commission at Austin.

FARM CLUB NEWS

Ruth Rodenbeck, demonstrator for the Detmold 4-H Club, has set a good example for her co-operators in the scissors she has chosen for her sewing work. Her scissors are made of a good metal, are very sharp, have a cutting blade over three inches long, have a large place for her fingers which make them easy to hold also they work loosely enough to make cutting with them very easy.

Every girl in the Detmold 4-H Club brought a correctly equipped sewing box to their club meeting. They will all be able to do good work because they have the equipment that a good seamstress needs; scissors, thimbles, tape measures, needles of various sizes, thread, emory bags, measuring gages, pins, pin cushions, and pads.

Juanita Shaw, a co-operator in the Val Verde 4-H Club will be able to keep the garment that she is making in her club work very neat because of the sewing box she has chosen. She has a large box about 15 inches long. The lid is as deep as the box so that it will stay on better and be more durable. Juanita has partitioned the inside of her box so that she can keep in one end all of the sewing equipment and in the remainder of the box the garment she is making. By dividing the box in this manner she can find her sewing equipment easier and keep her garment neater.

A piece of very soft, closely woven pale flesh-colored non-cling material has been chosen by Marceil Childers, co-operator in the North Elm Girls 4-H Club for the slip that she is going to make as a part of her year's club work. She chose this kind of material because it will wear a long time, is easy to wash and iron, is inexpensive, is easy for a beginner to work on, and is of a soft enough quality to form a good foundation for her school dresses.

Marceil was also careful to choose a very pale colored material since she has learned that the nearer white or skin colored the slip is, the better background it forms for her dresses.

INVITATION TRACK MEET MARCH 13

The 5th annual invitation track meet will be held here in the Yoemen stadium March 13, as announced by C. M. Hicks, director of the meet.

Notices have been sent out to more than 150 schools in Texas and a large percent of that number is expected to attend. Rubber stamps were prepared and sent to sporting goods manufacturers to be stamped on invoices and literature to carry notice of the meet to schools throughout the southwest. Hicks reported response from schools in Oklahoma and New Mexico.

Last year 36 schools entered the meet with 350 contestants. This year a much larger attendance is expected and indications are that this will be the largest meet of its kind held in Texas this year.

Medals and trophies will be presented to the winning teams and individuals. The Medals will be furnished by the Cameron Chamber of Commerce.

"GENERAL SPANKY"

A boy and his hero encountering the thrills and drama of the war between the North and the South has been taken as the theme for "General Spanky," which presents Spanky McFarland in his first starring role in a feature-length production. And judging from reports over the nation, the little eight-year-old Dallas boy ascends among the juvenile screen celebrities in a picture that is highly entertaining for grown-ups and children.

"General Spanky," rated one of the season's comedy hits, will be the attraction at the Cameron Theatre Friday, February 19.

"WHITE HUNTER"

Warner Baxter and June Lange, the thrilling sweethearts of "The Road to Glory" are teamed together again in "White Hunter" the Twentieth Century-Fox dramatic sensation coming to the Cameron Theatre Saturday, February 20.

The strong cast supporting the stars includes Gail Patrick, Alison Skipworth, Wilfrid Lawson and Geo. Hassell.

"AFTER THE THIN MAN"

With all the entertaining points of its predecessors, and a number of new ones, Dashiell Hammett's mystery story, "After the Thin Man," comes to the Cameron Theatre Sunday and Monday, February 21 and 22, starring William Powell and Myrna Loy. This is a sequel to "The Thin Man," which Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios produced in response to public demand.

An excellent supporting cast includes James Stewart, Elissa Landi, Joseph Calleia, Jessie Ralph and Asta, the intelligent wire-haired terrier which played a clever part in "The Thin Man."

The story presents the ace detective as he returns from New York to his home in San Francisco determined to abandon sleuthing activities forever. The first thing that slaps him in the face is an A-1 mystery, with a murder and another series of irresistible adventures.

The story carries up into the aristocratic heights of Nob Hill in the city of the Golden Gate and descends into the spicy atmosphere of Chinatown, with the solution never in sight until the very end. As a matter of fact, according to M-G-M authorities, the final scene were filmed secretly and the cast was virtually sworn to keep the plot to themselves.

"After the Thin Man" is a worthy successor to the first sensational picture which became a box office record breaker.

"DOCTOR BULL"

the outstanding armchair detective "Doctor Bull," the Fox Film production of the famous novel, "The Last Adam," by James Gould Cozzens, comes to the Cameron Theatre Wednesday February 24. It presents Will Rogers in what is reported as the outstanding role of his career.

"MAD HOLIDAY"

That perennially popular form of entertainment, the murder mystery, takes its first real "kidding" in M-G-M's thriller, "Mad Holiday," which, despite the fact that it pokes fun at the Philo Vances and the S. S. Van Dines and even at previous mysteries, winds up as a real mystery itself, full of suspense and melodrama.

The picture is the first for both Edmund Lowe and Elissa Landi under new long-term contracts, and both of them, curiously enough, practically impersonate themselves in their roles. Lowe plays the part of a movie star who specializes in detective roles. Miss Landi, herself an author of five successful novels, plays a writer of detective fiction, the creator of the character, Selby James, in which Lowe has starred.

"Mad Holiday" is scheduled at the

FEDERAL AGENT SLAIN
IN AUSTIN RUM RAID

Austin, Feb. 14—W. W. Thomason, an internal revenue agent, and an unidentified man were shot to death tonight when officers raided a still in the Colorado river valley, about five miles west of here.

News of the shooting was telephoned the sheriff's office by other members of the raiding party who asked aid of officers in rounding up a gang found at Mount Bonnell.

Chased Suspect

M. M. Mitchell, also a federal agent and M. E. Carter, a state liquor agent, were in the raiding party.

They reported that Thomason chased a suspect down the river bed while Mitchell guarded two persons, a man and woman, captured in a shack.

Another suspect eluded Carter who stopped at the lodge of Jay Motherall to telephone the sheriff's office. Fifteen deputies and city policemen were rushed to the scene.

Comb Hills for Slayer

Carter reported that he heard about 10 shots in rapid succession near where Thomason disappeared. Officers found Thomason and the unidentified man stretched on the ground.

Officers combed the hills for the man, who eluded Carter by rowing across the river. They said no gun was found on the body of the man found lying next to Thomason.

The unknown man was identified only as "Pancho" by the suspects captured by Mitchell. No charges had been filed in connection with the raid and shooting.

Less Monthly Discomfort

Many women, who formerly suffered from a weak, run-down condition as a result of poor assimilation of food, say they benefited by taking CARDUI, a special medicine for women. They found it helped to increase the appetite and improve digestion, thereby bringing them more strength from their food.

Naturally there is less discomfort at monthly periods when the system has been strengthened and the various functions restored and regulated.

Cardui, praised by thousands of women, is well worth trying. Of course, if not benefited, consult a physician.

SAFETY---OR THIS?

DEATH, in the guise of heavily loaded motor trucks, rides the highways of Texas every day and every night. The toll of human death and injury of these vehicles is appalling.

In the five-year period, 1932 to 1936, inclusive, trucks in Texas have participated in 8,416 highway accidents in which 2,195 persons were killed and 11,962 injured. In 1936 alone, their record stood 2,208 accidents with 3,323 persons injured and 576 killed. These actual records of people killed, as shown by Texas newspapers, compared with the number of deaths resulting from all motor vehicle accidents, as given by the Bureau of Vital Statistics in Austin, show that the average Texas truck participates in twice as many fatal accidents as the average passenger car. Likewise, as might be reasonably expected from their greater weight and size, and as shown by the records of the Texas Railroad Commission, the Carrier-for-Hire truck accidents, during 1936, have resulted, vehicle for vehicle, in three times the number of fatalities as for the average passenger car.

Increased liability to highway accident forms an inseparable result of BIG truck operation. But even now, the threat of greater highway hazards hangs over the people of Texas. Newspapers report that operators of BIG trucks have organized for the purpose of securing an increase in weight and speed limits, already too large. These are the elements, weight and speed, which, in highway accidents, spell "D E A T H."

The right to grant, condition or deny the use of the highways for profit, belongs to you, the people of Texas, notwithstanding the attempts of the operators of BIG trucks to take it away and give it to the federal government instead. Your present laws, limiting the size, weight and speed of trucks, were enacted by reason of your insistence, and by your insistence they have remained on the statute books. Their amendment would serve the sole purpose of increasing the profits of operators of the BIG trucks, with the certain results of also increasing the mounting injuries, deaths and property losses now taking place on your highways.

Public welfare and public safety demand that existing highway regulations shall be retained and enforced.

Strength During MIDDLE LIFE

Strength is extra-important for women going through the change of life. Then the body needs the very best nourishment to fortify it against the changes that are taking place.

In such cases, Cardui has proved helpful to many women. It increases the appetite and aids digestion, favoring more complete transformation of food into living tissue, resulting in improved nutrition and building up and strengthening of the whole system.

THE WASHINGTON STAGE

REVIEWED BY
W. R. POAGE
OUR CONGRESSMAN

Washington, D. C., Feb. 8, 1937. The outstanding feature of the last week in Congress was not what Congress has done but what the President has proposed. The President has sent to Congress a proposal to reform the judicial system of the nation and to nearly double the number of judges of the Federal Courts. Of course, it is pointed out that this will "put new blood in the courts," but most important of all it will give the President the power to appoint six new members of the Supreme Court. I can sympathize with any effort to speed up action of our Courts and am sure that many of the suggestions contained in the message are good, but I look with more fear on any policy of trying to hand-pick the membership of the Supreme Court with a view of trying to secure a majority on any particular viewpoint. This was done by the Republican Party during Reconstruction days, when they increased the membership of the Court for the purpose of securing a reversal of a decision previously rendered and their action then was so thoroughly disapproved that from that time to this no party has ever thought it wise or right to influence decisions by changing the number of the Court. And, of course, we must bear in mind that while we can increase the number we can not reduce it during the lifetime of the judges and the expense of the judiciary by such a move. I shall be inclined to go very slowly in this direction. Certainly, it seems to me that before we try to replace judges in this manner Congress might do well to provide a retirement fund for members of the Supreme Court as is now provided for other Federal Judges. I am advised that last session such a bill was introduced and defeated in the House. I would personally be glad to support a bill making a retirement fund available to members of the Supreme Court and thereby giving them an opportunity to retire when they feel they should.

*** The House has spent most of the week debating the Reciprocal Tariff Bill, which would extend the power of the President to negotiate Reciprocal Tariff treaties with foreign nations, whereby we extend special tariff rates to such nations in return for like favors extended to our goods. There are those who feel that these treaties allow too many foreign articles to come into the United States, but after all it seems to me that this is the only practicable way in which we can secure a foreign market for our own goods—particularly cotton.

We can not sell to other nations if we refuse to buy from them and we in the South must sell cotton if we are to prosper. If we sell it we must lower our tariffs to a point where our customers can sell their products in the United States. I would like to see a general reduction of tariffs, but we can not get this. We can, however, get a number of these special treaties and I am for giving the President the power to negotiate them. The bill will not be voted on till Tuesday or Wednesday of this week, but the general debate is about over. Today, the House is working on the affairs of the District of Columbia. The Congress is the Legislature for the District of Columbia and every other Monday is "District Day" in the House. We have up the repeal of the famous "Red Rider" which was put on as an amendment to the District Appropriation Bill by Mr. Tom Blanton, former Congressman from Abilene. The Senate has already voted to strike it off and I think the House will do likewise today. I do not think this rider should have ever been placed on the bill as it, for practical purposes, prevents the teaching of any of the history of Russia or any other communistic country in the schools of the district of Columbia. I expect to vote to remove it, but realize that its repeal may be taken as an invitation to teach communism as a desirable form of government. I do not think that this should be done in the District of Columbia or elsewhere, but I know that you can not destroy any political teaching by sticking your head in the sand and saying we will not mention it. I think we can most effectively create public sentiment against communism by showing its shortcomings and evils.

*** The House early last week passed the "Independent Offices Bill" which carried an appropriation of over a billion dollars for the support of governmental agencies, this together with the Deficiency Appropriation Bill, makes two billion dollars already appropriated. When I think of the fact that there is already a very definite plan under way to put all of the people for whose salaries these government appropriations are made under civil service and continue them in office I wonder where we are going. I can only say that the public should not be misled by most of the so-called reorganization bill. Most of them are little more than plans whereby existing office holders will hold their jobs on into the future. Only when you see a bill that abolish offices and jobs can you expect any relief.

*** The President has finally signed the feed-seed loan bill and the $50,000,000 appropriation is now available. I feel that this year this loan has been made available early enough to be of some real value to our people. The committee is still working on the home-ownership, or farm tenancy, bill; and may have something to report before long.

Our Town

dropped into time's oblivion. Perhaps if we had a little better philosophy, we should not be so sour on winter. Winter is the time of social life, when the country is full of happy crowds gathered for sparkling pleasures. It is the time when you can get people together to act on the needs of the community. It is hard to round them up in summer, when they are scattered all over the land on vacations, and in sporting affairs.

The country might make less progress if we had 12 months of the good old summer time.

*** A manufacturer once remarked: "There are three essentials in this business, to buy well, to manufacture well and to sell well. If you don't do all three well, you can't make a go of it."

That applies in all forms of business. The retail dealer does not have to manufacture well, but in place of it, he has to handle the public well. If he fails to advertise, something is lacking in the plans for selling and for handling the public, so he is falling short in two essential points.

People want to know about the goods before they start out to buy.

TOPS

In the world where men work 'tops' means the best.

Few attain this degree of progress. There are many who also ran.

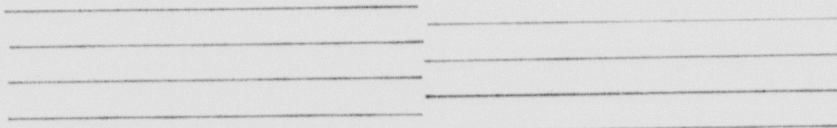

So it is in the world where business enterprises work, their relation to leadership being the same as that of the individual.

Tops with The Herald has long been a recognized fact. The ability to do the job brings to any industry or individual a distinction not accorded to 'misfits' or 'accidents' in professional life.

There is no place in this modern age for the unskilled. Only the qualified are fit for the responsibilities of place and position.

These and many other high standards have given The Herald leadership: in circulation, prestige, aggression and courage.

The Herald has no rubber ad rates; no two-timing of good customers for the benefit of the fly by night or the town enemy. Just a rate based on circulation. There can be no other reliable measure for advertising worth.
